SELECTION PROCESS

1. A panel of professional crafters and artisans will jury the crafts.
2. Crafts must be handcrafted, but that will not be the only criteria. Selection will also be based on quality and originality.
3. To be in the 1st round of jurying applications, payment and photos must be received by July 1, 2004.
4. There will be additional rounds of jurying only if spaces are still available. See schedule on reverse for other dates.
5. If you are not selected there is no need to re-apply for the later jury process unless your craft has changed.
6. Crafters who participated in the 2003 Harvest Craft Fair will need to submit photos of new items.
7. Photos will be returned if application is not accepted.
8. Due to the popularity of these shows we will not be able to accommodate all applicants.

CRAFTER INFORMATION

1. Food items will not be accepted into the craft fair. (For food items, Ask about the Gourmet Galley.)
2. Crafters must provide their own tables, chairs and/or canopies.
3. Electricity is NOT available.
4. All booths are outside in the sun.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

1. In order for your application to be accepted you will need a seller's permit number issued by the State Board of Equalization (916-227-6700).

2. Return application, photos and payment to:
